Letters in Washington from Commodore Mayo, in command of our squadron on the coast of Africa, who, on the 7th of February last, was at the mouth of the river Gambia with his flagship, the Constitution. All were well on board of the Constitution. All the ships of that squadron, except the Dole, are on their way home, having served out the regular time The sloop of war St. Louis, for a craise. Commander Ingraham, sailed from Spezzia on the 15th of March, for the United States. The Cumberland and Saranac were there at that time. All were well on the 3 thins. Of the new steam frigates, it is judged that the Merrimack (under construction in the Boston Navy Yard) will be ready to be put into commotion as early as the end of Scotember next, and that the next one that will be ready to go to sea will be the Minnesota, built at the Washington Yard.

Nows of the appointment of Col. Steptoe to be governor of Utab, in place: of Brigham Young, was received at Great Sult Lake on the 6th of February. It rather surprised the Mormons, but it was thought no opposition would be made.

On new year's day a collision took place between the United States soldiers and the citizens, at a drinking slop. Seven or eight persons were shot, but none killed .-Two of the soldiers were severely wounded The Mormons ordered out the "legion," threatening to destroy the whole battalion of United States troops in the city, under Col. Steptoe. The three companies of U. S. troops were under arms for three days, when hostilities ceased.

Swiss Paupeus not coming to New Your .- Mayor Wood has received a second letter from Mr. G. H. Goundie, the American consul at Zurich, informing him that the 320 people sent from the canton of Argorie, Switzerland, to the United States are destined to lead at New Orleans, and not at New York. Mr. Goundie says :--

I also informed our consul at Havre of the fact. He at ence entered a project against their skiling but the Swiss consulat Havre, and other persons, interferingand they being provided with a draft on the Swiss consul at New Orleans for fifty france ($10)each-which is here considered as sufficient to prove that they are not destitute, our consul permitting them to sail for New Orleans.

All these things will have a good tendency; and, in fact, it has done so already, by making the governments more cautious to whom they grant passports.

The "Retreat of the Ten Thousand" has been celebrated in the clearest and most beautiful narrative; the "Charge of the Six Hundred" has been sung by the Laureate, and an ambitious poet has taken into his keeping the fame of the "Twelve Hundred" the Whige who remain a sad memorial of the party that so long ruled the State. His touching effort is on the first page of this day's paper, and although it is not much better than 'Tennyson's, we feel bound to give it a place.

- THE CHARGE OF THE TWELVE HUNDRED.

To the polls, to the polls, To the polls onward Among all the Know Nothings Murched the twelve hundred.

Among all the Know Nothings Murched the twelve hundred. For a Whig ticket Some one had blumlered. 'Forward," the Journal said, "Come on, Whigs," Cranaton prayer Not a'en their taxes paid, Marched the twelve bundred,

"Forward !" the Journal said, "Forward, don't be afraid." Not though each voter knew Some one had blundered ; They did not make reply, They did not reason why. They only said "we'll try." Among all the Know Nothings Marched the twelve hundred.

Know Nothings right of them, Know Nothings left of them, Front and behind them Shouted and thundered 'Midst all the crowd and jum, "Midst all the cheat and sham, Up to the ballot box, Right in the teeth of SAM, Marched the twelve hundred,

Raised all their ballots bare, Held them up high in sir, Scorning the gluten there, Charging a double foe !
All the State wondered. The Know Nothings burst on, The Democrats corst on, (They could a't find Thurston,) And that we were glad on, All the twelve hundred.

Know Nothings right of them, Democrats left of them, Sam on all sides of them, Shouted and theadered. Benton with envelopes, Crushed all their party hopes, Twelve handred gloomy mopes, Back from the polls they came All the Whigs left of them. Only twelve bundred.

To their praise be it said, One faithful stand they made, When parties sundered. Honor the stand they made ! Not uslamed, not afraid. Nubla twelve hundred !

It is asserted than Pinto, in his relations as secretary of Conclin, was possessed of evidence going to show that Concha himself had meditated treason against the Spanish government, and the establishment of a dictatorship over Cuba. To Concha's #ailty soul he was therefore a continual dread. Hence the resort to such proceedings against him, and the liendish malignity with which he pursued him to his death. He was determined to rid himself of the witnesses to his crime at all hezards, and without regard to law or right.

Specie for the Crimea.-We were startled a few days ago by the statement that seventy-five tons of coin had been engaged as part of the cargo of a vessel now loading here for Constantinople. We learn to day that the shippers are auxious to ongage forty-five tons more, having one hundred and twenty tons to ship. Lest this heavy shipment of coin should alarm the Wall street financiers, we may as well add that it is all in krentzers, (the copper coin of Germany, nearly equal in value to our cent,) and comprises a collection made, probably, from the money brought out by emigrants. It was taken by the vessel at $8 per ton freight. When it arrives, the Mussulmans will be well supplied with "small change,"-Jour. of Com.

Hoson THE FAITHFUL .- The Allany correspondent of the New York Courier & Enquirer relates the following:

There died in this city recently at the house of one of its worthiest and most re. vered citizens, a colored woman, who had borne true and faithful service there for fifty two years. The funeral, with a just appre ciation of Christian intregrity in duty, was ordered with every appeintment of respect, and the corpse was boroz out of the house by the four sons of the goetleman. Those who had been borne in childhood by her care, themselves gave this tasteful and offeeting tribute of respect to true, but lowly worth. The incident was in such good taste and dignity of kindness that it well de-

Louisville, April 9. At our municipal election on Saturday, the Know Nothings swept the city by a tremendous majority. B arbee, the Mayor, one school trustee, and two councilmun are Know Nothings. On the liquer question the anti-liquer party had a large majority. The election passed off quietly.

CINCINNATI, April 6. There has been another riot in the Sixth ward of this city. A large party of newdies, armed with clubs, guns and pistols, went to the Ln Fayette House, on the corner of Mill and Front streets, kept by a German named Jacob Knight, and demanded liquor, when they were immediately handed some beer. They then commenced breaking the glasses in the house, and after knocking Knight senseless, they went through his house, insulted his wife and assaulted his children. They then left the premises, and on the sidewalk met four Germans, three of whom they knocked down and the other they stabled. The latter is not expected to recover. The crowd greatly augmented, and finally drove Knight's family from the house. Five arrests have been made over the casal. The Germana are still armed. During the whole of last night sentinois goarded the streets, and none but Germans were permitted to pass. The first arrests were made to day.

Great Snow Storm in April .- The Rome (N. Y.) Sentinel gives an account of a great snow storm that visited that _region on Monday last. The editor, who travelled in the cars from Watertown to Rome, says:

"In many places the anow was higher than the tops of the cars, a channel having been out through just wide enough for their passage. In many places the shelving drifts had extended half ever this canal, while in the bottom an accumulation of two feet of snow, with no room for depositing it from the scrapers, soon formed a barrier to the progress of the train, and the shovellers were again in demand."

Among other articles landed at the Brooklyn Navy Yard, on Friday, from the storeship Southampton, which arrived last week from the Pacific, is a Japanese barge, intended as a present to the President of the United States .-- , It is from 40 to 45 feet long, and the hull, which is built of cypress, or a wood very much resembling it, tapers forward to a sharp point, presenting a remarkably fine run. Accompanying the boat is a full set of sails and rigging. Altogether the barge is quite a curiosity and well worthy the inspection of the curious. The workmanship is executed in a very superior manner and would do credit to the most skillful of our mechanics. Her seams require no caulking, the joints being so well fitted as to cause no danger of leukage.
